This checklist is designed to give you (the beneficiary) guidelines and information needed to process beneficiary distribution requests and to establish or transfer in inherited IRAs. If you have questions about distribution or account transfer processes, please contact a Pacific Premier Trust Client Service Representative at 1-800-962-4238.

DOCUMENTATION NEEDED TO REQUEST A DISTRIBUTION TO BENEFICIARY(IES)

- Certified copy of IRA Owner’s death certificate.
- Completed Trust Certification form if a trust was named as the primary beneficiary.
- Completed IRA Beneficiary Distribution Request form for each primary beneficiary.
- Certified copy of primary beneficiary’s death certificate if you are a contingent beneficiary.

NOTE: If there are multiple beneficiaries, completed distribution forms must be received from all beneficiaries before distributions can be processed. The Trust Certification and the IRA Beneficiary Distribution request forms are available at www.PacificPremierTrust.com.

DOCUMENTATION NEEDED TO ESTABLISH AN INHERITED IRA WHEN THE DECEASED IRA OWNER’S ACCOUNT IS AT PACIFIC PREMIER TRUST

To establish an inherited IRA, the non-spouse beneficiary(ies) need to provide all of the documentation listed in the previous section. The application will need to be completed as follows:

The IRA application must be completed by the non-spouse beneficiary(ies) in the name of the deceased IRA Owner, but signed by the beneficiary(ies). See example below.

DOCUMENTATION NEEDED TO ESTABLISH AN INHERITED IRA WHEN THE DECEASED IRA OWNER’S ACCOUNT IS AT ANOTHER TRUSTEE/CUSTODIAN

Ideally, the inherited IRA should have already been established with the current trustee/custodian before it is transferred to Pacific Premier Trust; however, it is not required.

To establish an inherited IRA when the deceased IRA owner’s account is held at another trustee/custodian, we need to have all of the following information:

- Certified copy of the IRA Owner’s death certificate.
- Completed IRA Application and Transfer/Rollover form (Traditional, Roth, SEP, SIMPLE IRA) completed in the name of the decedent and signed by the beneficiary(ies) establishing an account with Pacific Premier Trust. See example above for the proper completion of the IRA Application.
- Completed Trust Certification Form if a trust was named as the beneficiary.
- Documentation, i.e., copy of account statement or account application verifying the type of IRA at the previous trustee/custodian (e.g., Traditional, Roth, SEP, SIMPLE, etc.).
- IRS Form 5498 (or year-end statement) from the previous trustee/custodian reporting previous year-end Fair Market Value.
Completed Pacific Premier Trust IRA (Traditional, Roth, SEP, SIMPLE as applicable) Beneficiary Distribution Election form if the beneficiary wants to begin distributions when the inherited IRA is transferred and established at Pacific Premier Trust.

NOTE: The Pacific Premier Trust IRA Application with Stretch Provisions is available on our website at www.PacificPremierTrust.com. If a designated beneficiary is transferring in more than one inherited IRA, the above-listed documentation is required for each. Inherited IRAs cannot be combined into one account at Pacific Premier Trust unless the decedent is the same for each inherited IRA being transferred. Transfers must be made into the same type of IRA as that of the previous trustee/custodian, i.e., Traditional IRA to Traditional IRA or Roth IRA to Roth IRA.
