Removal/Correction of Excess IRA Contribution

IMPORTANT INFORMATION

Use this form if the following apply to your Traditional, SEP, or Roth IRA.

- You are requesting the removal of a current tax year contribution plus earnings.
- You have not taken a deduction for the contribution and it is before your tax-filing deadline plus any applicable extensions
- You are requesting the removal of an excess contribution and it is past your tax-filing deadline plus any applicable extensions.

All applicable fees will be deducted from available cash prior to sending payment to you. If there is insufficient cash to cover the fees as well as the requested distribution amount, the fees will be deducted from the available cash and the difference will be distributed to you. It is your responsibility to provide Pacific Premier Trust with asset instructions if cash is not sufficient to cover the distribution and/or applicable fees.

NOTE: Excess contributions removed after an account owner's extended tax filing deadline are subject to a 6% penalty for each year the excess contribution remains in the account. Please contact your tax advisor or the IRS with any questions. Additional information may be found in IRS Publication 590 and the instructions to form 5329 at www.irs.gov/formspubs/index.html.

The sale of illiquid assets may require the completion of the Secondary Market Investment Authorization form. Please contact your Financial Representative or Pacific Premier Trust if you have questions about how to liquidate or sell an asset.

¹An approved extension to file is not required if the taxpayer filed his/her tax forms by the original due date for filing.

4. TAX WITHHOLDING

You must complete this section even if electing not to withhold, including for in-kind distributions. If no option is checked, or a physical U.S. address is not provided, we will withhold for federal income tax purposes and, if applicable, the appropriate amount according to any distribution from the account will be satisfied from available cash in the account. If there is insufficient cash in the account to satisfy any withholding obligation, we will not be able to process the distribution.

Requested withholding (Federal and State) must total less than 100% of the gross transaction amount. 100% withholding requests will not be processed. The IRS allows for 100% withholding; however, it is not operationally feasible for Pacific Premier Trust to process withholding equaling 100%. All fields below must be completed, or your request may be delayed and the default withholding rate of 10% on the transaction may apply.

5. ACKNOWLEDGMENT & SIGNATURE

- I attest that the excess contribution correction requested complies with all requirements of law and Pacific Premier Trust plan documents.
- I understand all implications (tax and otherwise) with respect to this request and, to the extent deemed necessary, have consulted with my investment and/ or tax advisor.
- I understand that the requested distribution(s) will be subject to the fees outlined and that all applicable fees will be deducted from available cash prior to sending payment to the participant.
- I understand that if the excess contribution plus earnings are being removed for the prior year (but before tax filing deadline plus extensions) the earnings are taxable in the year of the contribution. Prior year tax returns may need to be amended.

IRA STATE WITHHOLDING NOTICE

Some states require state withholding if federal withholding is elected or required when making a distribution from your retirement plan. Please refer to the chart to determine if your state of residence requires withholding. Effective January 1, 2022, Pacific PremierTrust will only process state withholding for those states where withholding on retirement plan distributions is mandatory (see various mandatory categories on table below). If state withholding is voluntary or if withholding is not an option, Pacific PremierTrust will not offer or process state withholding from your distribution. If state withholding is required in your state, we will withhold based on the requirements of your state of residence, unless you choose a greater amount.

While Pacific Premier Trust makes every effort to obtain information about state tax withholding laws, we do not guarantee the accuracy or the timeliness of state tax withholding information we provide; state tax laws are subject to constant change and interpretation. If you claim an exemption from mandatory state withholding, you may be responsible for filing a state withholding exemption certificate. The information we provide is not intended to serve as tax or legal advice, and we strongly recommend that you contact your tax advisor regarding your tax withholding elections and to obtain the most current information about your state's withholding laws.

DEPARTMENT OF THE TREASURY, INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE 2024 FORM W-4R

GENERAL INSTRUCTIONS

Section references are to the Internal Revenue Code.

Future developments. For the latest information about any future developments related to Form W-4R, such as legislation enacted after it was published, go to www.irs.gov/FormW4R.

Purpose of form. Complete Form W-4R to have payers withhold the correct amount of federal income tax from your nonperiodic payment or eligible rollover distribution from an employer retirement plan, annuity (including a commercial annuity), or individual retirement arrangement (IRA). See pages 6 and 7 for the rules and options that are available for each type of payment. Don't use Form W-4R for periodic payments (payments made in installments at regular intervals over a period of more than 1 year) from these plans or arrangements. Instead, use Form W-4P, Withholding Certificate for Periodic Pension or Annuity Payments. For more information on withholding, see Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Caution: If you have too little tax withheld, you will generally owe tax when you file your tax return and may owe a penalty unless you make timely payments of estimated tax. If too much tax is withheld, you will generally be due a refund when you file your tax return. Your withholding choice (or an election not to have withholding on a nonperiodic payment) will generally apply to any future payment from the same plan or IRA. Submit a new Form W-4R if you want to change your election.

2024 MARGINAL RATETABLES

You may use these tables to help you select the appropriate withholding rate for this payment or distribution. Add your income from all sources and use the column that matches your filing status to find the corresponding rate of withholding. See pages 6 and 7 for more information on how to use this table.

Nonperiodic payments—10% withholding. Your payer must withhold at a default 10% rate from the taxable amount of nonperiodic payments unless you enter a different rate on line 2. Distributions from an IRA that are payable on demand are treated as nonperiodic payments. Note that the default rate of withholding may not be appropriate for your tax situation. You may choose to have no federal income tax withheld by entering "-0-" on line 2. See the specific instructions below for more information. Generally, you are not permitted to elect to have federal income tax withheld at a rate of less than 10% (including "-0-") on any payments to be delivered outside the United States and its territories.

Note: If you don't give Form W-4R to your payer, you don't provide an SSN, or the IRS notifies the payer that you gave an incorrect SSN, then the payer must withhold 10% of the payment for federal income tax and can't honor requests to have a lower (or no) amount withheld. Generally, for payments that began before 2024, your current withholding election (or your default rate) remains in effect unless you submit a Form W-4R.

Eligible rollover distributions - 20% withholding.

Distributions you receive from qualified retirement plans (for example, 401(k) plans and section 457(b) plans maintained by a governmental employer) or tax-sheltered annuities that are eligible to be rolled over to an IRA or qualified plan are subject to a 20% default rate of withholding on the taxable amount of the distribution. You can't choose withholding at a rate of less than 20% (including "-0-"). Note that the default rate of withholding may be too low for your tax situation. You may choose to enter a rate higher than 20% on line 2. Don't give Form W-4R to your payer unless you want more than 20% withheld.

Note that the following payments are not eligible rollover distributions for purposes of these withholding rules:

- Qualifying "hardship" distributions;
- Distributions required by federal law, such as required minimum distributions;
- Generally, distributions from a pension-linked emergency savings account:
- · Eligible distributions to a domestic abuse victim;
- · Qualified disaster recovery distributions;
- Qualified birth or adoption distributions; and
- Emergency personal expense distributions.

See Pub. 505 for details. See also Nonperiodic payments—10% withholding above.

Payments to nonresident aliens and foreign estates. Do not use Form W-4R. See Pub. 515, Withholding of Tax on Nonresident Aliens and Foreign Entities, and Pub. 519, U.S. Tax Guide for Aliens, for more information.

Tax relief for victims of terrorist attacks. If your disability payments for injuries incurred as a direct result of a terrorist attack are not taxable, enter "-0-" on line 2. See Pub. 3920, Tax Relief for Victims of Terrorist Attacks, for more details.

SPECIFIC INSTRUCTIONS

Line 1b

For an estate, enter the estate's employer identification number (EIN) in the area reserved for "Social security number."

Line 2

More withholding. If you want more than the default rate withheld from your payment, you may enter a higher rate on line 2.

Less withholding (nonperiodic payments only). If permitted, you may enter a lower rate on line 2 (including "-0-") if you want less than the 10% default rate withheld from your payment. If you have already paid, or plan to pay, your tax on this payment through other withholding or estimated tax payments, you may want to enter "-0-".

Suggestion for determining withholding. Consider using the Marginal Rate Tables on page 6 to help you select the appropriate withholding rate for this payment or distribution. The tables are most accurate if the appropriate amount of tax on all other sources of income, deductions, and credits has been paid through other withholding or estimated tax payments. If the appropriate amount of tax on those sources of income has not been paid through other withholding or estimated tax payments, you can pay that tax through withholding on this payment by entering a rate that is greater than the rate in the Marginal Rate Tables.

The marginal tax rate is the rate of tax on each additional dollar of income you receive above a particular amount of income. You can use the table for your filing status as a guide to find a rate of withholding for amounts above the total income level in the table.

To determine the appropriate rate of withholding from the table, do the following. Step 1: Find the rate that corresponds with your total income not including the payment. Step 2: Add your total income and the taxable amount of the payment and find the corresponding rate.

If these two rates are the same, enter that rate on line 2. (See Example 1 below.)

If the two rates differ, multiply (a) the amount in the lower rate bracket by the rate for that bracket, and (b) the amount in the higher rate bracket by the rate for that bracket. Add these two numbers; this is the expected tax for this payment. To get the rate to have withheld, divide this amount by the taxable amount of the payment. Round up to the next whole number and enter that rate on line 2. (See Example 2 below.)

If you prefer a simpler approach (but one that may lead to overwithholding), find the rate that corresponds to your total income including the payment and enter that rate on line 2.

Examples. Assume the following facts for Examples 1 and 2. Your filing status is single. You expect the taxable amount of your payment to be $20,000. Appropriate amounts have been withheld for all other sources of income and any deductions or credits.

Example 1. You expect your total income to be $62,000 without the payment. Step 1: Because your total income without the payment, $62,000, is greater than $61,750 but less than $115,125, the corresponding rate is 22%. Step 2: Because your total income with the payment, $82,000, is greater than $61,750 but less than $115,125, the corresponding rate is 22%. Because these two rates are the same, enter "22" on line 2.

Example 2. You expect your total income to be $43,700 without the payment. Step 1: Because your total income without the payment, $43,700, is greater than $26,200 but less than $61,750, the corresponding rate is 12%. Step 2: Because your total income with the payment, $63,700, is greater than $61,750 but less than $115,125, the corresponding rate is 22%. The two rates differ. $18,050 of the $20,000 payment is in the lower bracket ($61,750 less your total income of $43,700 without the payment), and $1,950 is in the higher bracket ($20,000 less the $18,050 that is in the lower bracket). Multiply $18,050 by 12% to get $2,166. Multiply $1,950 by 22% to get $429. The sum of these two amounts is $2,595. This is the estimated tax on your payment. This amount corresponds to 13% of the $20,000 payment ($2,595 divided by $20,000). Enter "13" on line 2.

Privacy Act and Paperwork Reduction Act Notice. We ask for the information on this form to carry out the Internal Revenue laws of the United States. You are required to provide this information only if you want to (a) request additional federal income tax withholding from your nonperiodic payment(s) or eligible rollover distribution(s); (b) choose not to have federal income tax withheld from your nonperiodic payment(s), when permitted; or (c) change a previous Form W-4R (or a previous Form W-4P that you completed with respect to your nonperiodic payments or eligible rollover distributions). To do any of the aforementioned, you are required by sections 3405(e) and 6109 and their regulations to provide the information requested on this form. Failure to provide this information may result in inaccurate withholding on your payment(s). Failure to provide a properly completed form will result in your payment(s) being subject to the default rate; providing fraudulent information may subject you to penalties.

Routine uses of this information include giving it to the Department of Justice for civil and criminal litigation, and to cities, states, the District of Columbia, and U.S. commonwealths and territories for use in administering their tax laws. We may also disclose this information to other countries under a tax treaty, to federal and state agencies to enforce federal nontax criminal laws, or to federal law enforcement and intelligence agencies to combat terrorism.

You are not required to provide the information requested on a form that is subject to the Paperwork Reduction Act unless the form displays a valid OMB control number. Books or records relating to a form or its instructions must be retained as long as their contents may become material in the administration of any Internal Revenue law. Generally, tax returns and return information are confidential, as required by section 6103.

The average time and expenses required to complete and file this form will vary depending on individual circumstances. For estimated averages, see the instructions for your income tax return.

If you have suggestions for making this form simpler, we would be happy to hear from you. See the instructions for your income tax return.
