

Certification Regarding Beneficial Owner(s) of Legal Entity

IMPORTANT INFORMATION: To help the government fight financial crime, Federal regulation requires certain financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information about the beneficial owners of legal entity customers. Legal entities can be abused to disguise involvement in terrorist financing, money laundering, tax evasion, corruption fraud, and other financial crimes. Requiring the disclosure of key individuals who own or control a legal entity (i.e., the beneficial owners) helps law enforcement investigate and prosecute those crimes.

Persons opening an account on behalf of legal entity must provide the information requested below. In addition, we may ask to see a copy of a driver's license or other identifying documentation for each beneficial owner identified in this form.
